HERITAGE CITY: A GLIMPSE THROUGH SKETCHING

Anchor Faculty: Kaushik Chakraborty
Schedule | 21 - 25 May, 2018

Introduction

Ahmedabad is a 606 years old fantastic city situated on the bank of the river Sabarmati. The old part of the city has the attraction of the pols, havelis, lanes & bi-lanes, walls, tombs and moreover peoples - basically all these characters together have created the overall magical appearance and flavour of the city.

On the other hand, sketching is a primary yet very powerful and effective medium to record and represent visual experience. The workshop Ahmedabad : "A Glimpse Through Sketching" will try to give participants a primer about sketching on location and in different parts of the city and capture some memorable visual experience through black & white and watercolour sketches. The participants can take away the learning from the workshop to continue further the journey of sketching.
